Data protection - short version

Data Collection and Use

The Club collects and processes members' information such as name, address, telephone number(s), email address, dates of membership, photos submitted for competitions and events, competition scores and other information needed for club activities.

Membership records may be retained for up to five years and may be used periodically to maintain contact and communicate information about club events.

More Information

Members are invited to join closed communications groups such as WhatsApp which may enable other members to view personal information such as name, telephone number or other identifiable information.

The Club will never share membership information with third parties for marketing (including electronic marketing).

From time to time, we may circulate information from affiliated photographic organisations which may be of interest to members, or information about photography activities or events approved a member of the Committee.

We publish the images submitted for competitions, members' names and scores on the Club web site.

Participating in inter-club events may require personal information and images to be provided to another organisation and we will ask you to agree to this in advance.

Anybody wishing to verify the information held on them by the Club must write to the Membership Secretary using the contact details published on the web site. Unless a legitimate reason exists, a response will be provided as soon as practical and without charge. The individual has a right to rectify any information which is incorrect, or request that it is deleted. Any concerns relating to a data privacy matter should be addressed to the Membership Secretary.

The full data protection document is stored in the Member's section on the club website.
